

Two dead, eight injured in Ogun road crash

18th December 2023

Crushed Toyota Carina

By Dare Olawin

Kindly share this story:

Two persons are confirmed dead as eight others sustained injuries in a road crash along the Idiroko-Ota road.

The Federal Road Safety Corps said the crash occurred around 8pm on Sunday, involving 10 persons – five male adults, four female adults and one female child.

“The crash claimed two lives (male adults) and left eight people injured (four female adults, three male adults and one female child),” the FRSC said on Monday.

According to the FRSC spokesperson in Ogun, Florence Oko, the clash involved a Man Diesel truck with number plate LSR10YD and a Toyota Carina with no number plate.

Related News

Three die, nine injured in Ogun road crash

Four die, eight injured in Lagos-Ibadan Expressway crash

Two die, many injured in Ondo, Ogun road crashes

“The suspected cause of the crash was wrongful overtaking that led to a head-on collision.

“The injured victims were taken to General Hospital, Idiroko for treatment, and the corpses were taken away by the family.

“The Sector Commander, FRSC Ogun Sector Command, CC Anthony Uga, advised motorists to always have a clear vision of 150 to 200 meters at night and a controlled speed before overtaking,” Okpe said.