

23-year-old man kills father in Kwara

by Biola Azeez December 20, 2023 in Metro Reading Time: 2 mins read

AA

A 23-year-old man, one Saidi Musa Elemosho, has allegedly macheted his father, one Chief Musa, the Elemosho of Share Land in the Ifelodun local government area of Kwara state, to death.

The suspect was dragged before Magistrate Muhammed Dauki for the offence of culpable homicide.

The First Information Report (FIR) said that Saidi claimed that his father was cursing him without any reason while in the sitting room.

Related Posts

77 new opticians inducted in Kwara health tech

Chevron trains journalists, harps on upholding ethical standards

NNPP's Ajadi hails Olayoku's emergence as IPAC deputy national chairman

The suspect, who reportedly got annoyed as a result of his father's unpleasant words, attacked him with a cutlass on the head, hitting him several times till he died, and later escaped to a mountain in Share.

The police prosecutor, Sergeant Abdullah Sanni, informed the court that the matter is not ordinarily bailable because it is a culpable homicide, urging the court to consider the motion ex parte attached to the FIR and order the defendant to be kept in the correctional facility centre.

Magistrate Dasuki, in his short ruling, ordered Saidi's remand while the matter is adjourned to January 9, 2024.