

The Civil Society Situation Room said two protesters were shot dead by security agents at the Kaduna State Government House, and six in Niger.

The group's Head of Coordinating Secretariat, Olawale Okunniyi, in a statement on Thursday, revealed that several other protesters were injured.

He said, "Report reaching the Civil Society Situation Room, monitoring incidents and ethical compliance with civil protests during the nationwide citizens' mass protests on hunger and hardships in Nigeria from Kaduna, have it on good authority that two protesters have been shot dead by security agents at the Kaduna State Government House, Badikko.
