The Benue State Police Command has rescued the community leader of the Kunav United Development Association, Emmanuel Tor Yaji, who was abducted around 10 pm on Monday.

During the rescue operation, policemen were reported to have killed one of the abductors and apprehended one other.

Yaji, the President General of Kunav Development Association, was abducted by gunmen while in a gathering of his friends at his village, Tsar Mbaduku, in Vandeikya Local Government Area.

The spokesperson for the state police command had Tuesday afternoon issued a statement confirming the abduction of the community leader and called on the public to give useful information that could lead to the rescue of the abducted man.

Meanwhile, in the latest statement by the command's spokesperson, Catherine Anene, she stated that the community leader was rescued around 1:30 pm on Tuesday.

The PPRO explained that one of the kidnappers was killed during the gun duel with the kidnappers.
