

Man, woman found dead in Kogi apartment

20th April 2025

By Gbenga Odogun
Kindly share this story.

The Kogi State Police Command had launched an investigation into the circumstances surrounding the death of a man and a woman in the Ankpa Local Government Area of the state.

The command’s public relations officer, SP William Aya in an interview on Saturday, gave the names of the deceased persons as Sheriff Salifu and Blessing Adama, who were both from Ankpa.

It was, however, not clear if the duo were a couple or not, but both were naked when their lifeless bodies were discovered in the room.

Related News

- Man declines N14,000 dowry refund in exchange for divorce
- Six dead, others injured in multiple crashes in Kogi
- Man kills son during fight with wife in Ogun

Aya, who described the incident as sudden and unnatural, said the command has launched an investigation to ascertain the cause of their deaths.

Aya said, “One Salisu Ibrahim from Alo in Ankpa came to the station about 12 pm, where he reported that his tenant, one Sheriff Salifu, did not come out of his room as usual at about 09:31 am.

“So, the brother to the deceased entered the room through the ceiling and met his brother and one Blessing Adama of Ojogobi Road Ankpa lying lifeless in the room. Both deceased were seen naked.”