The Ondo State Police Command on Wednesday confirmed the killing of one commercial motorcyclist, Nazifi Ibrahim, by a suspected armed robber

PUNCH Metro gathered that Ibrahim was shot dead by a passenger he carried at Ore community in Odigbo Local Government Area of the state on Tuesday. After the deed, the assailant was said to have snatched the motorcycle.

According to a source in the community, who pleaded anonymity because he was not permitted to speak with the media, the incident occurred on Tuesday at about 10:40 p.m. on the fateful day, stressing that the incident had caused tension in the community as Ibrahim was well known among his colleagues in the area.

The source said the deceased took the deadly passenger to Alafia Street within Ore, where he was attacked and gruesomely murdered by him (the passenger).

The source said, “We don’t know what transpired between the deceased and the unknown assailants before he was shot dead.”
