

2 Killed As Auto Crashes

EMMA UNA/Calabar

A woman and her son have been killed by a car which rammed into them while they were weeding grass in their farm at Nko in Cross River State.

PMNews gathered that the accident occurred when the front tyres of the Toyota Hilux van, driven by Mr. Gabriel Ugo, a director in the Internal Revenue Department of the Cross River State Government, burst.

The car, it was learnt somersaulted several time as the driver of the Hilux vehicle tried to control it.

It eventually crashed into the farm at Nko, killing the woman and her child.
