

Human Leg In White Man's Car

OLUWOLE ADEBOYE

Police detectives at Force Headquarters Zone 2, Onikan, have arrested a driver with fresh human leg.

The suspect whose name was simply given as Shadrack and attached to a foreigner (names withheld), who works with  Bagco Super Sack Manufacturing Company, was driving his boss' children to Lekki, where they school in a blue Toyota Corolla car marked KC 154 KJA when a beggar sighted the leg of a middle aged man dangling under the car.

Immediately, the beggar raised an alarm which attracted policemen within the area. The cops stopped the car and arrested the driver.

When P.M.News contacted the Force Public Relations Officer Zone 2, ASP Lekan Ogundare, he confirmed the incident and added: "I cannot comment on the matter. It is only the AIG that can speak to you. Please go and meet him."
