The police in Kebbi State have recovered the corpse of a four-year-old girl murdered by suspected ritualists in Birnin Kebbi.

The News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) reports that the corpse was found in a classroom in a primary school at Makeran Gandu, Birnin Kebbi.

NAN learnt that the deceased was strangled by her killers before removing some parts of her body.

A family friend of the girl's parents confided in NAN that the heart and liver of the deceased were removed by the ritualists.

He said the deceased and her parents resided in Shagamu in Ogun, but were on a visit to Birnin Kebbi, their hometown, on holiday when the incident occurred.

Confirming the incident, the Commissioner of Police, Alhaji Ibrahim Machi, said the girl was initially reported missing by her parents.

He also said that an autopsy conducted on the corpse indicated that she was strangled by her assailants, adding that "no part of her body was missing."
