

Robbers Raid Shogunle

PAUL DADA

For the umpteenth time, daredevil armed robbers have raided Shogunle killing resident in the process.

The robbers were said to have robbed a fuel station at Ladipo bus stop. Unchecked they move to Edun street.

Passer-by were ordered to move away by the men of the underworld. However, PM News learnt that one Emmanuel who was slow in obeying the instruction of the robbers was shot in the head by a member of the gang.

The victim who was rushed to the hospital later died.

Funmi, one of the residents of the area narrated to PM News "I was shivering when the robbers emerged. They killed somebody here".

Another resident of the area, Shina explained that he was going with a friend when the robbers who were hiding at the back of a truck ordered everybody to flee "I had to take to my heels".

PM News gathered that policemen later came to area when it was too late as the robbers had left.
