

Robbers Write Mafoluku Residents

PAUL DADA, OLAIDE ADEKUNLE & ADEWUNMI ADEBIYI

Panic has gripped residents of Mafoluku area of Oshodi after they received a letter from armed robbers informing them that they would soon storm the area.

A resident of Salami street in the area, Alisan Ogbuenyi, explained to P.M. News that "Armed robbers sent notices to our street. My family had to flee to the Air Force Base, Ikeja."

Other residents are also worried about incessant attacks by robbers in the area.

Residents of Bronco, Afariogun and Adelaja streets were actually visited by armed robbers recently. Some were killed while others were injured while trying to escape.

Among those killed by robbers was an 85-year-old man, known as Pa Ahmood Sulaimon, Desmond Uzoegbu, Raphael Udeh and a student identified as Oshodi.

The robbers were said to have invaded the area at 2:00 a.m. in three buses. They were armed with guns, machetes and carted away money, mobile phones, jewellery and other valuables.

Speaking with P.M. News, the secretary of the Landlords Association in Bronco Street, Mr. Mabinuori, whose house was also robbed, said: "I have never seen this kind of incident in my life. Our belongings were seriously looted."
