Tipper Crushes 6

KAYODEFABUNMI

Tragedy struck on Tuesday morning at Meiran, along the Lagos-Abeokuta Expressway when a lorry ran into six persons and killed them.

The accident took place around 4 a.m. An eyewitness said the victims were sitting on the median of the expressway when the vehicle hit them.

Midweek Crime Watch learnt that those who were killed had come to participate in the annual Orimolade Day.

The event is usually held at the Cherubim and Seraphim Church, African Jerusalem, Meiran.

However, a member of the church said that those that were crushed were not members of the church. He added that the victims may have been invited by some members of the church to grace the occasion.

A police officer at the Meiran Police Station confirmed the incident.

He said the remains of the victims had been deposited at the mortuary while investigation of the incident was being carried out.
