Policemen from Igando this morning arrested three men with three fresh human heads on Igando road.

The suspects, two of them in their late 50s, and the driver in his late 30s, were arrested at about 9.30 a.m. at a check point.

P.M. News gathered that the three men were arrested in a Mazda saloon car with registration number Lagos EU 125EKY.

A source at the scene of the arrest who spoke with P.M. News said when the three men got to the check point and were asked to open the boot of the car, they refused.

“When the policemen eventually forced them to open the boot, they saw three fresh human heads," the source said.

They were immediately arrested and taken to the Igando Police Station, while the human heads were taken to the Exhibit Room.

The source explained that the DPO of Igando Police Station, Mr. Ambrose Agbede, has contacted the Lagos State Commissioner of Police, Mr. Mohammed Abubakar, on the issue.

There are indications that the suspects would be transferred to the state police command headquarters in Ikeja where they may be paraded soon.

Following the arrest, commuters stormed the Igando Police Station to catch a glimpse of the suspects. At the time of filing this report, policemen were seen chasing off the crowd with teargas canisters. The DPO of the station, Mr. Agbede, declined to speak with our reporter and also refused to disclose the identity of the suspects.
