

mission, Mrs. Fatma Waziri, is still being screened by the Senate and is yet to resume at the office of the commission.

Investigations at the commission's headquarters revealed that activities have virtually been paralysed because there is nobody to direct affairs there.

Allowances of members con-busy.

Investigations revealed further that the former acting head of the commission, Mr. Lamorde had stayed away from the commission since he was replaced by Waziri.

Sources also told P.M.News that there had not been a formal handing over since Waziri was yesterday that he had just re-

Continued on Page 1

BRT Vehicle Catches Fire As 2 Die

ASTRO JEWOOLA

Two persons died early this morning when two vehicles, a Bus Rapid Transport (BRT) and a private car had an accident on the Eko Bridge.

Sources told P.M.News that the incident happened between 7.00am - 7.30 close to Costain.

P.M.News gathered that the BRT vehicle, which was fully loaded with passengers from Ikeja, was heading towards Church Missionary Society (IMS) bus terminus on Lagos Island when the incident happened.

The driver of the bus was reported to have lost control and the bus hit the private car from behind.

"Suddenly we heard an explosion and the bus caught fire and was almost burnt to ashes. The two drivers died instantly while others that were injured was rushed to Lagos General Hospital, Broad Street, Lagos," said the source who witnessed the accident.

The BRT vehicle was being towed away when P.M.News got to the scene of the accident.

The accident caused heavy traffic jam which was being cleared by LASTMA officials at the time of filing this report.

•The burnt BRT vehicle, this morning. PHOTO: ASTRO JEWOOLA.

OPINION Still Lebbies