

Ghastly Accident On Lagos-Ibadan Expressway

OLATUNJISALIU

There was a ghastly motor accident along the Lagos-Ibadan expressway this morning, when a truck crashed into a tree near the popular Grema Mohammed New Kara Market, a few kilometres from Berger Bus stop.

P.M.News findings in the area revealed that the vehicle with registration number Lagos XR 145 MUS, belonged to NWT Trucks.

The number of casualties could not be ascertained as at the time of filing this report, but P.M.News gathered that the truck was conveying gravel to Lagos.

At the scene of the accident, some parts of the truck were seen mangled, while other parts were detached from the body.

in Jos, the Plateau State capital, has pleaded for the remains of his son to be released to the family for immediate burial.

According to a family source, the mother of the boy has been hospitalised as a result of the trauma of having to wait for her son's corpse indefinitely.

"We want to put this sad event behind us, so let the NYSC Director-General, Major-General Yusuf Bomo, release the remains of Ibukun to us. The father initially wanted to take some other measures, but now, we have concluded to address the press by 12 noon tomorrow, Thursday, at the deceased's family's residence in Meiran,
