
Police Kill 2 Robbery Suspects

FUNMILOLA OYELOLA

Two armed robbery suspects have been killed by policemen at Igando, an outskirts of Lagos. They were killed during a gun battle with policemen while trying to escape.

P.M. News investigations revealed that the suspects met their fate when they attacked residents of 9, Ayodopo Street, Akesan in the morning. One of the occupants of the house, who had just returned from church, was robbed and shot in the leg and he is presently receiving treatment in an undisclosed hospital.

Residents disclosed that robbers had been disturbing them since last year, adding that they alerted the police who came promptly to their rescue.

Items recovered from the suspects include two cut-to-size guns, six rounds of ammunitions and a machete.

Also recovered from them were four stolen handsets and the sum of N200,000, belonging to the residents they robbed.

A police source at the Igando police station confirmed that the corpses of the suspects had been deposited at the Isolo mortuary, while investigation on the robbery is still ongoing.
