Many of the law enforcement agents who use the motorcyles these days do not really know how to ride. They just climb the okada and fell they could brave it. Please for those alive acquire the knowledge or skill of riding the motorcylce before you enter the highway. For Anayo may his soul restin peace.

May his soul rests in peace. But PMnews, if your correspondent was at the scene of the acciddent, he should be able to tell the readers whether the policeman owns the okada or being carried, what happened the bike rider. Remember you told us the policeman was returning from a trip. Did he travel with the Bike. What happened to the bus that hit him? was Incomplete news reporting. PM News should have made all efforts into ascertaining the drivers hereabout and also the cause of accident before publishing this half baked story

It is a pity! What a reckless driver. Who knows maybe he (The driver) doesn't have diver's license. Anyway, nobody is perfect. May the soul of Mopol Anayo rest in peace. To his wife, newborn baby and the entire family, you just have to take heart; God will console you.
