

PAULIYOGHOJIE

A handset snatcher based in Obalende area of Lagos simply identified as Jude has been shot dead by a plain cloth security officer.

According to an eyewitness account, the victim was inside his car making a call when the late Jude snatched his mobile

Handset Thief Shot Dead

phone.

The security operative in mufti reportedly ran out of his car with his gun and shot him on the head while descending the P & T Bridge, Obalende, yesterday.

Members of the late Jude's family were said to have moved to the scene and removed his body to an unknown place, perhaps for burial.

As at the time P.M.NEWS arrived the scene, traces of blood were seen at the scene of the incident while bystanders were speculating that the deceased's body might have been moved to Patey area of Lagos Island.

The top security operative was said to have sped off in his car immediately he shot the handset snatcher and recovered his phone.

Meanwhile, residents of the area have expressed relief over the incident. They identified the late Jude as a notorious phone snatcher who had been jailed three times.

Mokundi Decidants Jubilate Over Ver'Adue's Return