

Man Sent To Prison For Killing Lover

A 46-year old clearing and forwarding agent, Emmanuel Adun, an Edo State indigene, has been arraigned before an Ebute-Metta Magistrate's Court, Lagos South-West Nigeria, for allegedly killing his lover, Paulina Oviabo, a Delta State indigene.

He was ordered to be remanded in prison custody.

Emmanuel was said to have killed his lover on 29 July, 2010 at 3, Oguntade street, Lekan Adebisi Street, Egan, Igando, Lagos.

The accused, a father of four and the deceased who was a caterer and mother of one had been lovers since 2001. It was gathered that the late Paulina had no child for the defendant.

The one count charge against him read: "that you Emmanuel Adun, 46, on 29 July, 2010 at about 7 p.m. at 3 Oguntade Street, off Leka Adebisi Street, Egan, Igando, Lagos, in the Lagos Magisterial District an unlawful killed one Paulina Oviabo, 48, by forcefully throwing her down on the ground, sat on her stomach and choked on the her neck with two hands and thereby committed an offence punishable under Section 319(1) of the Criminal code, Cap. C17, Vol. 2, laws of Lagos State of Nigeria, 2003."

Continued on Pg.2

Man Sent

Continued From Pg.1

The prosecutor, Mr. Ekundayo Gabriel, a police sergeant, told the court that there is an application before the court for the remand of the defendant.

The trial magistrate, Mrs. H. O. Omisore, granted the application and ordered the defendant to be remanded in prison custody pending the outcome of the advice from the Director of Public Prosecution, DPP's Office.

Omisoré, however, adjourned the case till 24 November, 2010 for mention.