At the time of filing in this report, at least seven people have been arrested in connection with the incident including two female students believed to be girlfriends to some of the hoodlums from Popo area who were believed to have spearheaded the clash.

Furthermore, the residents of Yejide area of Ibadan were also affected in the melee as property worth millions of naira including food stuffs were destroyed.

Investigations revealed that as a result of the clash that occurred between students of the two schools, a reappraisal attack was launched by the students of Community Grammar School.

It was gathered that a female student from the Community Grammar School invited hoodlums from Popo area to assist in launching the attack.

The hoodlums got to Ibadan City Academy around 11.30am demanding to see the school Principal who was not available.

As the hoodlums were leaving the school, one of them was allegedly attacked by some students leading to his death.

One of the teachers attacked by the hoodlums, Mr. Atanda Bamigbade told newsmen that it was when they could not see the principal that they descended on the teachers and attacked them with dangerous weapons.

He gave names of those attacked by the hoodlums as Mrs Toyin Omotoso, Mrs. T. Makanjuola and the security guard, Mr. R.O. Lawal.

Two teachers at the Yejide Girls' Grammar school were also attacked and our source revealed that they have been hospitalised.

However, luck ran out on one of them when he was overpowered by the teachers while another one scaled the fence.
