A truck ran over a car and killed two occupants on the Lagos-Ibadan Expressway vesterday.

The victims, who were yet to be identified, were travel-officials and take them to the barracks

Calm was restored when a senior taskforce official intervened and asked his boys to beat a retreat.

Taskforce Chairman, Bayo Sulaiman confirmed the attack on his men and described it as ling in a Toyota Camry saloon car with registration number LSD 716 AE when the truck ran over their car and crushed them to death on Otedola Bridge .The incident which happened around 6.30pm caused a serious traffic jam an affront on the state government for soldiers to vandalise government vehicle.

He said it was wrong for soldiers to attack taskforce officials on legitimate duty with stones and other dangerous weapons.

27, 2011 when I heard someone dash into my room. When I inquired to know who it was, it was Nurain's voice that I heard."

"I asked him to tell me what he wanted in my room but there seemed not to be any tangible reason. Immediately I finished taking my bath, I went to where I kept my money but it was nowhere to be found and incidentally Nurain had left the house," she explained.

After cross-examination of the plaintiff by the counsel to the defendant, Mr. Ashaolu. there wasn't any real proof that the defendant actually stole the money.

P.M.NEWS gathered that the case has been adjourned for further hearing.

on the highway. The driver of the ill-fated truck, with Jigawa number plate: SA 985 BBR. and his conductor were said to have escaped from the scene of the incident immediately it occurred.

P.M.NEWS gathered that the truck, which was heading towards Ibadan, had a brake failure before it ran over the car killing its two male occupants instantly. An eyewitness, who simply identified himself as Agbabiaka, said:"I was trekking to Isheri when the truck drove past me. Later I heard a loud bang and when I got closer I discovered that the truck had crushed a Toyota Camry with two occupants". Traffic policemen from Isheri Police Station and officials of the Lagos State Traffic Management Agency, LASTMA, later visited the scene to ensure free flow of traffic.

"The policemen removed the corpses to a mortuary while officials of the LAST-MA towed the truck and the damaged car to their office in Oshodi." the evewitness said.
