Breaking News: Gunmen shoots police DPO as she did school run

font size | Print | Email | Add new comment

A Divisional Police Officer has been gunned down in Kano State barely 24 hours after terrorists bombed an interstate bus terminal in the state killing at least 30 persons and wounding dozens. Security sources in Kano told newsmen that Esther Tarimo, a DPO in the Daurawa District was shot and killed by unknown gunmen early Tuesday afternoon.

Information was gathered that she was trailed from her child's daycare where she had gone to pick the infant from school.
