

	NEWS	POLITICS	BUSINESS	OPINION	COLUMNS	SPORTS	LIFESTYLE	ADVERT RATE	ABOUT
--	------	----------	----------	---------	---------	--------	-----------	-------------	-------

PHOTO GALLERY

You are here: Home ▶ NEWS ▶ NEWS ▶ National News ▶ Crash: Three dead in Nasarawa gov's convoy

Crash: Three dead in Nasarawa gov's convoy

Details

Published on Monday, 24 September 2012 03:11

Written by Ali Abare

Abubakar, Lafia

Hits: 693

...Gov's son wounded

Three persons including an aide of the Nasarawa state governor Tanko Al-makura have lost their lives in a ghastly motor accident when the official Hilux van they were travelling in had a head-on collusion with a heavy duty vehicle along the Nasarawa- Toto road.

The son of the governor, Khalid Al-makura narrowly escaped dead as he sustained serious injuries in the accident.

The victims were conveying the governor's son from Loko, where Al-makura has gone to deliver relief materials to victims of flood in the area.

FEATURED NEWS

2013 Budget: Reps shun Jonathan's presentation

VIEWERS

We have 1114 guests and no members online

1 sur 4

28/09/12 12:45

CPANEL

Those who lost their lives in the crash include Khalid's police orderly, one of the governor's aides, popularly called Zaki and the driver of the van.

Confirming the incident to Peoples Daily yesterday, the Director of Press Affairs (DOPA) to Governor Al-makura, Mallam Iliyasu Ali Yakubu, described the accident as shocking, adding that Khalid was rushed to the Keffi Federal Medical Center where he is presently receiving treatment.

Governor Al-makura was on his way back from an official function in Loko when the accident occurred.

Add comment

Name (required)

E-mail (required, but will not display)

Website

1000 symbols left

☐ Notify me of follow-up comments

Refresh

More female pilgrims deported

Police discover another bomb factory in Kano

Policy inconsistency bane of agriculture in Nigeria - Sen. Adamu

...says 6thNational Agricultural Show kicks-off

...

Hajj: Pilgrims' luggage will arrive early this year, says Kabo Air's spokesman