

Fatal Motor Accident

By Ademola Fabiyi

On Janaury 12, 2007 at about 1820 hours, there was a report at Ebute-Ero Police Station that a Commercial Vehicle 911 Mercedetz-Benz Bus (Molue) with registration number XA387SMK driven by one Oladipupo Claudius 'M' ran over a yet to be identified pedestrian at Apongbon, Lagos Island. The victim later died in the hospital.

Traffic Police men from the station visited the scene and the corpse removed to the Public Mortuary for autopsy. The case is under investigation, too.

Also, the high-rise building that used to be the corporate headquarters of the PHCN before the unbundling and relocation of the headquarters to Abuja, was gutted by fire at Marina, Lagos. The sudden fire outbreak destroyed part of the 9th floors of the 14 storey office complex of Eko distribution zone of the Power Holding Company of Nigeria Plc. No recorded casualty.
