Two thugs shot dead in Osun

By NGOZI UWUJARE, Osogbo

Thursday, May 10, 2007

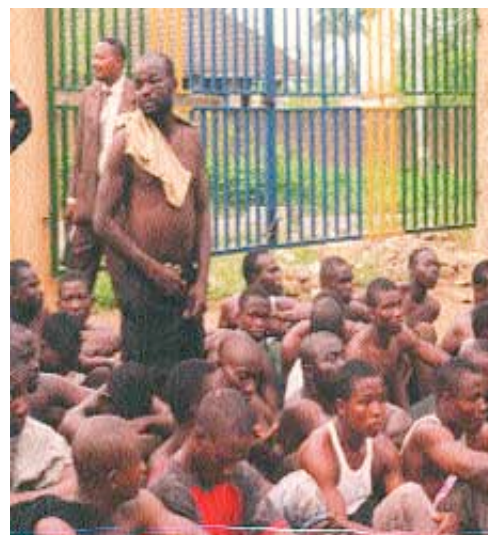

The last may not have been heard of the political thuggery in Osun State as Daily Sun findings have revealed how thugs tried to use two diabolical eggs to set two policemen on fire before they were shot dead.

The thugs were said to have sighted the policemen and thought they were coming to effect their arrest in connection with the spate of violence in the state and attempted to throw the eggs at them before they were stopped by a combined team of soldiers and policemen.

Similarly, 73 persons, who were allegedly involved in the burning of houses during the last election, have been arraigned in court. They were arraigned at the Osogbo magistrate court. The Chief Magistrate, Jide Falola has ordered that the suspects be remanded in Ile-Ife prison.

The Chief Press Secretary to the Osun State governor, Mr. Lasisi Olagunju, described as regrettable, a situation where thugs set houses and other property on fire for political reasons.

“Those arrested would be made to face the law,” he said.
