Two cops killed as gunmen attack Kaduna police station

From NOAH EBIJE,
Kaduna

① Gunmen in the early hours of yesterday attacked a divisional police station in Kaduna, killing two policemen.

Police authorities described the incident, which took place in Manchok, Kaura Local Government Area of the state as, a hit and run operation by the hoodlums.

According to the state Commissioner of Police, Olufemi Adenaike, the gunmen were chased out of the place by the firepower of policemen.

Eyewitness account said the gunmen also robbed several residential areas, including the residence of the Secretary to the local government council, Umar Yakubu.

② Gunmen suspected to be Fulani herdsmen had in early April launched massive and bloody attacks on Attakar community of Mafang and Zilang villages, killing over 19, and injuring about 10 persons in the local government area.

Sometimes in June, a similar development took place in Birnin Gwari Local Government Area where unidentified gunmen attacked Kwasakwa village, killing several people including security personnel.
