

of the state and a 300-level

to arraign him in another high court.

"When the high court released me on bail, the defendants refused to obey the court order. Even when my father wrote to the 1st defendant (Commissioner of Police) concerning my shooting, he refused to take any action and did not even reply the letter. "In prison, I have been having serious pains and the prison's doctor recommended proper medical treatment by orthopedic surgeon and a cardiologist.

tion, returned home at about 11:00pm with a lady the night before his assassination.

According to his neighbours, they woke up to discover that the man had been murdered, saying that the lady friend was no where to be found and was not picking her phone calls.

plex emboldened members loyal to him to use all manner

Man, 51, murdered in Rivers

From TONY JOHN, Port Harcourt

Unknown assailants have murdered a 51-year-old man, Chief Alali Wali, at his residence in Port Harcourt, Rivers State.

The incident occurred yesterday at about 4 a.m in Ada George area by Omega Clinic Street.

The deceased lived behind Rumuokwuta Girls Secondary School back gate in Port Harcourt.

Daily Sun gathered that Chief Wali was from Bayelsa State and lived alone.

Investigation revealed that the man, whose neighbours could not confirm his occupa-

