

fore he met his death.

Following the incident, a dusk to dawn curfew was imposed on the community while its major entrances were cordoned off by security personnel as vehicles were not allowed in or out of the community before 6.00 am and after 6.00 pm.

Palpable fear pervaded the community, as some people, who went home for the Christmas break, hurried back to their various bases.

The body of the slain man was deposited in a mortuary in the area while police investigation was on. The dead man has not been buried till date.

Perhaps, Caesar's last operation in his community before his arrest was said to be the abduction of a young man from his place, who came back from Spain last December. After receiving a ransom of N4m, he killed the young man, claiming the amount.

Nwojo is responsible for the death of over 30 in our client's community. This same Nwojo is responsible for the murder in December 2012 of one Samuel Kalu who came back from Spain after collecting N4m ransom from his family members just he killed several others including the mother of DUBIC and her grand daughter.

"Our client congratulates you for arresting Nwojo a.k.a Caesar who has been causing mayhem in Abiriba as peace and security has now returned to the community."

Unconfirmed reports have it that Caesar has been killed while in custody while in some quarters, it is believed that he is still alive undergoing interrogation. Whatever his circumstance, the people of the community have made their stand clear: whether alive or dead, they wouldn't want to see him again, ever.
