

terror ended in June this. After killing the young man who came back from Spain and whose name was given as Samuel Kalu, the king of terror and his gang moved over to a community in Ebony State where they were alleged to have kidnapped a prominent man of the area and his wife.

In his usual style, Caesar was said to have demanded and received a ransom of about N25m and eventually killed the couple. This incident was reported to the police in that state and they immediately spread their dragnet in search of Caesar and his men.

A source told Saturday Sun that, with the ransom, Caesar relocated to Ojota area of Lagos
