Plateau State Sector Commander of the Federal Road safety Commission (FRSC), Sunday Markus, has said the command recorded only an accident during the Christmas celebration which led to the death of four people.

Speaking to journalists in Jos, he said the accident occurred at Awan Kibo on Jos-Abuja Road, saying even at that, there was a decline in accident cases during the celebrations, which he said was due to measures taken by the command to effectively cover the state during the festivity and beyond.

The sector commander added that massive public enlightenment and grass-roots approach were embarked upon to ensure safety of lives on the road.

The state Commissioner of Police, Chris Olakpe, commended the people of the state for collaborating with the security forces to achieve a peaceful Christmas celebration and solicited for the same during the New Year.
