

ments and Agencies (NDAs) of the Federal Government.

According to him, "Our scheme receive their pensions and gratuities, and are not sub-

as bio
govern
than sa commit develop try and
peace,
govern

He n
eral do
challeng
witness velopme

Chidi Lloyd's driver kills police sergeant, civilian in Port Harcourt

From TONY JOHN,
Port Harcourt

A police sergeant and a civilian have been reportedly killed in an auto crash in Port Harcourt, Rivers State, while another policeman is in a critical condition,

The victims were allegedly crushed by a Sport Utility Vehicle (SUV) driven by the driver to the Leader of Rivers State House of Assembly, Chidi Lloyd.

The tragedy occurred on Monday at about 10pm along East-West Road, Port Harcourt.

Daily Sun gathered that the incident had caused tension in Rumuji in Emohua Local Government Area where the accident occurred.

The state police command confirmed the incident and the spokesperson of the command, Ahmad Muhammad, a deputy superintendent (DSP), told Daily Sun that the survivor had been admitted in an undisclosed hospital.

My Pikin syrup: App imprisonment of cor

By LUKMAN OLABIYI

The Court of Appeal sitting in Lagos yesterday affirmed the verdict of a Federal High Court that pronounced two persons guilty over the production and sale of killer syrup, 'My Pikin'.

The appellate court however, reversed the order of winding up and forfeiture of the company made by the court.

Delivering the lead judgment at the appellate court, Justice Dauda Bage affirmed the seven years sentence handed by the trial court. The judge held that by the provisions of Sections 36 of the

Constitut
the Evid
of proof
was proo doubt. He not shift.

He hel
matter of required
was scien
is, proof t
covered,
cally, and

The co
prosecutio
discharged proof by certificate
tion from i
clearly sh