BY CHINELO OBOGO

An unidentified man drowned yesterday evening at the bar beach in Victoria Island, Lagos.

The man, who was said to be in the company of his friends was seated far away from the usual spot where fun seekers converge when it was observed that he was drowning.

Confirming the incident, Zonal Co-ordinator of the National Emergency Management Agency (NEMA) in South-West, Alhaji Iyiola Akande said: "While the man and his friends were seated far away from where fun seekers usually converge, he probably strayed far away from them when one of them observed that someone was drowning in the sea and raised the alarm.

Immediately the alarm was heard, the life guards at the beach made frantic efforts to save him but could not.

"This incident has brought the number of people that has drowned in the bar beach in 12 days to five."
