1 killed as Orile Area Boys go berserk

By IBUKUN
ONIFADE

There was pandemonium in Orile Iganmu recently when riot broke out between street urchins known as 'Memudu boys' and 'Alagba boys' during which one person was killed and scores injured.

An eyewitness account stated: "Violence broke out when some Memudu boys stormed Alagba Street to destroy people's valuables including vehicles, houses and tricycles, exploiting the opportunity to loot.

"The Memudu boys took the law into their hands because they blamed Alagba boys for allowing some area boys called Adeleye boys to enter through their street to fight them."
