

Teenager kills rival for snatching his girlfriend

FROM EMMANUEL ADEYEMI LOKOJA

A 16 year-old boy has allegedly killed his rival for snatching his girl friend in Kogi State.

Trouble started for the deceased, Abu Atiku, after he held a meeting with his girlfriend, Ruth.

Crime Watch gathered that on his way home, one Godwin Abraham accosted him, and accused him of snatching his girlfriend.

Abraham was said to have called on other boys who were hiding in the bush and ordered them to kill Atiku.

Atiku's friend, Gado who told the heart rendering story said as he saw the boys dealing with Atiku, he fled the scene and hid inside the bush. He said he watched closely as the boys hit his neck with iron rod and watched him die slowly. The principal suspect who spoke with Crime Watch in the police cell claimed that he did not mean to kill Atiku. "I only wanted to teach him a lesson because, I have warned him to desist from seeing my girlfriend but he would not listen.
