Gunmen attack Adamawa village, 2 soldiers, civilians feared killed

Unknown gunmen Tuesday killed two soldiers and three civilians at Sabongari Hyambula village in Adamawa State.

An eyewitness account said the gunmen struck the area Tuesday night and launched attack on the military checkpoint, which led to the death of the soldiers and three civilians caught up in the attack, while two of the attackers also died.

The chairman of Madagali Local Government, Mr.

Abawu Watharda confirmed the incident but stated that normalcy had since returned to the area.

He said soldiers were able to repel the attackers which led to the restoration of normalcy while fleeing residents have started coming back to their abodes.

"I called on the fleeing residents to come back to their homes as the soldiers are now on top of the situation and they assured us of the safety of residents," the chairman said.
