It was a bloody Friday at the Mowe Bridge on Lagos-Ibadan Express Road, Ogun State as trailer rammed into a truck killing seven persons and injuring about 10 others.

The accident happened when the trailer with registration number FKJ297XB rammed into the truck with registration number, BDG 623KK, loaded with artisans going for a building construction from Lagos to Mowe, Ogun State.

At least seven persons, five women and two men died on the spot while 10 others were rushed to hospitals.

When Saturday Sun visited the scene, six mangled bodies were on the road. Also human blood, brain and flesh littered the road.

A survivor, Ruth Olasukonmi who had broken limb said, "We boarded the truck from Ojodu. We were all artisans going to a building construction at Mowe when all of a sudden a trailer hit our truck. As we were all standing inside the truck, some of us fell off the vehicle. Some unlucky ones fell under the trailer and fast moving vehicles crushed them to death"
