

led a team of doctors to save his life to no avail.

4 feared killed as Civil Defence, Neighbourhood Watch clash with protesters

By OLA AGBAJE &
CHRISTOPHER Oji

There was pandemonium at the headquarters of Amuwo-Odofin Local Government Area 41 Road, Festac Town, Lagos on Monday as members of Nigerian Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) attached to the council fired gunshots at some traders protesting the arrest of some of their colleagues.

Daily Sun gathered that some traders especially lottery operators, otherwise known as Baba Ijebu were arrested by military personnel attached to OP MESA.

The OP MESA were said to have been invited by members of Neighborhood Watch attached to the Amuwo Idofin Council after a failed attempt to arrest the traders.

Aregbesola, Ajim youths conference

By AKEEB ALARAPE

All roads lead to Ibadan, capital city of Oyo State as youths from Yorubaland converge on the city tomorrow for their 10th Annual conference tagged 'Oluyole 2014.'

The conference, which is the brain child of the Coalition of Oodua Self-Determination Groups (COSEG), will have Osun State Governor, Ogbeni Rauf Aregbesola as special