• Emir didn't flee Mubi – Council

Combined onslaught by soldiers and hunters paid off yesterday as no fewer than 70 Boko Haram insurgents were killed in the battle that saved Michika and Madagali Local Government Areas of Adamawa State.

Sources said the militants ran out of ammunition and as they were fleeing the two local governments they were ambushed by the military and local hunters. This is even as the Emir of Mubi, Alhaji Abubakar Isa Ahmadu, denied media reports that he had fled the state's commercial nerve centre.

A resident of Michika who doesn't want to be mentioned, told Daily Sun yesterday in Yola that Boko Haram insurgents fled the two council areas when they had no ammunition to fight. "We are really happy for the improvement we are experiencing today. Our youths and vigilante men ambushed and killed over 70 insurgents in our areas because they ran out of ammunition."

Meanwhile, the Emir yesterday denied the reports that he had fled and had been taken to a safer place. The monarch said he could not abandon his subjects amid Boko Haam's onslaught in Bazza, Michika LGA.

The Emir, who spoke through one of his title holders, the Danruwata of Mubi, Chief John Babani Elias, said the royal father left Mubi for Yola in his capacity as the Amirul Hajj for this year's pilgrimage and a meeting as assigned by the state government.

According to him, "the emir was in Yola for a meeting with members of the delegation. Let me put the records straight here that the emir did not leave Mubi for Yola to escape from the insurgents, but rather for a meeting with members of the 2014 Pilgrimage Delegation Committee. He will return to Mubi immediately the meeting is over."

He warned rumour mongers to desist from spreading information that has no source and creating panic,

The Danruwata said that there is no insurgency in Mubi and no Boko Haram casualty anywhere in Mubi North, Mubi South and Maiha Local Government Area of Adamawa State. He said the insurgents attacked Michika and Madagali Local Government Areas.
