Village head of Ungwan Muazu in Zazzau Emirate Council, Kaduna State, Alhaji Kabiru Buhari has been murdered by gunmen in Kaduna.

His body was discovered by a combined of security and community search teams on Friday about 3:50pm at his farm in Nariya, Kabala West area of Kaduna metropolis.

Police Public Relations Officer for the Kaduna State Police

Command, Mr Aminu Lawan, a Superintendent of Police, confirmed the incident, saying that the police also took part in the search for the deceased.

Lawan added that police have commenced investigation into the killing, stressing that no stone would be left unturned to unravel the circumstances surrounding the incident. He assured that the perpetrators will be fished out and made to face the full wrath of the law.

The late Buhari, 56, was married to one wife and had five children.

According to those who retrieved his corpse from the farm said there was gunshot wound on his head, an indication deliberately aimed and shot him at the head, and left his remains by his car.

The District Head of Ungwan Muazu, Alhaji Ahmed Aliyu Idris recalling the interaction he had with deceased before the incident happened told newsmen in an interview:

"We closed from the Council meeting with him around 5pm on Thursday, and I think he proceeded to his farm at Maigiginya.

His family later alerted us on Friday morning that he didn't sleep at home. So, we reported to the police and commenced a search for him.
