

ing the unfortunate civil war of 1967 to 1970.

teaming unemployed youths.
"In the area of corruption,

platform as the only vehicle for change in the country.

Cultists kill 2 in Bayelsa

From FEMI
FOLARANMI, Yenagoa

Cultists resumed their orgy of violence in Yenagoa, Bayelsa State capital yesterday evening, shooting and killing two persons.

The attack, which was carried out separately by two groups, occurred at Azikoro Estate and Nikton Road, Kpansia.

According to investigations, the first victim identified as Paulo, who recently dumped cultism during the denunciation exercise organised by the state government, was shot in front of his family house at Azikoro Estate.

His assailants were said to have come to the Estate in a Honda Accord Saloon car and immediately identified their target, shot him twice and later came back to shoot him to confirm he was dead.

According to eyewitness account, the incident threw the Estate into pandemonium as people scampered for safety.