No fewer than six persons were yesterday burnt to death in an early morning inferno, while two others were injured.

The incidents, which occurred in different areas of Lagos, caused pandemonium.

The lucky survivors are currently being treated at the intensive care unit of Igando General Hospital, while the bodies of the five deceased persons have since been deposited at the Isolo General Hospital mortuary.

The first incident, which occurred along LASU-Idimu Road, happened during a multiple accident, involving about four vehicles.

Though, the registration numbers of the affected vehicles had been removed when Daily Sun visited the scene of the accident, eyewitnesses said the three trucks involved in the accident carried alcoholic drinks. All the vehicles involved were completely burnt.
