Also in Benue State, Police Command yesterday paraded six suspects, including two women and six males for conspiracy, armed robbery and kidnapping of one Christian Eze at Naka in Gwer West Local Government Area of the state. Cases of kidnapping have become rampant in the state. For instance, in the last two months, no fewer than five persons have been kidnapped, among them children.

Commissioner of Police, Hyacinth Dagala, who paraded the suspects before newsmen at the command's headquarter in Makurdi, intimated that the eight-man gang had on November 2 this year, attacked Eze's family and robbed them of N500,000. The evil men thereafter kidnapped and took him to an unknown destination.

Dagala informed newsmen that the police had gone after the kidnappers on learning of the incident. Unfortunately, they had killed their victim after collecting N1 million from the family.

The suspects, who included Zainab Sunday, Chioma Abah, (both females), Yahaya Abdulkareem, Gabriel Moses, Mohammed Lawal, Monday Achor, Musa Idakwoji and Yusuf Sunday were arrested. And from them were recovered N879,100 being part of the ransom money, one Passat car with registration No. KPA 1044, one litre of engine oil container with bloodstain and a locally made short-gun.
