Two robbery suspects were yesterday shot dead by the police at Ebrumede in Uvwie local Government area of Delta

State.

The Divisional police officer (DPO) of Ebrumede police station, CSP Ukoh Nkereuwynhen who briefed the press about the incident said his men got a distress call that the hoodlums were operating at a plaza store close to the state.

"Our men wasted no time and stormed the place but as soon as they saw the police coming, they opened fire but with our superior skill and powerful cross fire facing them, they were killed instantly", said the DPO.
