From ABDULLAH TSOHO, Dutse

Few hours to the commencement of gubernatorial election an All Progressive Congress (APC) supporter was killed in Jigawa state allegedly by supporters of the People Democratic Party (PDP).

The police spokesperson in the state DSP Abdul Jinjiri Confirmed the incident to news men adding that three people were arrested in connection to the killing.

He explained that, a ward councillor under the Peoples Democratic Party who was identified as Lawal Manyal and two others not identified were arrested after allegedly stabbing the deceased to death on the eve of the governorship election in the state.

The deceased Sani Garba of Garki local government area of the state was said to have been killed with knife.

DSP Jinjiri gave the name of the two other accomplices as Haruna Maidaji and Hussein Aminu adding that they will be charge to court after the conclusion of investigation into the matter.
