26 cultists killed in Rivers

Blood flowed in Rivers on Thursday afternoon, following the reported killing of 26 cultists in a forest around Obesemini community in Egi, Ogba Egbema Ndoni Local Government Area by men of the Rivers State Anti Robbery Squad, SARS.

An anonymous source in one of the nearby communities told our reporter that security operatives stormed the hideout of the suspected cultists, opened fire and killed about 26 of the cultists and abandoned their corpses in the forest.

According to the source, the victims were allegedly behind killings in the local government. According to the source, more than 30 persons have been killed by suspected cultists this year in the council.

Even though the state Police public Relations Officer, DSP Ahmad Muhammad denied knowledge of the incident, but the command has announced restriction of movement from 10pm to 6am Saturday morning, adding that movement would be further restricted from 10 am to 6pm Saturday.
