

DSS arrests 5 over murder of personnel, 3 others

FROM: TONY JOHN,
PORT HARCOURT

THE Department of State Security (DSS), Rivers State Command, has arrested five men over the alleged kidnap and murder of its personnel and three others in the state.

The suspects include: Justice Onyekachi, Chidi Christian Nwokoma, Precious Ndidi Alali, Gift Onyegbule Ogbonna and Uche Success Nwokocha. They were allegedly involved in a kidnap and murder case in Uyo, Akwa Ibom State.

The suspects allegedly kidnapped a DSS personnel, Charles Dimkpa, who was former Chief Security Officer to a former governor of the State, Chibuike Amaechi, at his home in Rukpokwu, Obio/Akpor Local Government Area. The suspects allegedly committed the crime on April 28, 2016.

Similarly, the suspects were said to be (allegedly) responsible for the abduction of one Edward Aderejo, Chijoke Igbokwe and Stanley Ogbonna Njoku, a journalist with a radio station in Owerri, Imo State.

It was gathered that luck ran against the gang when upon investigation, DSS stormed their hide-out on May 5, on Ahoada/Omoku Road, arrested them and rescued four victims.

The suspects, it was gathered, would be arraigned next week.
