

Police investigate death in hotel

BY CHRISTOPHER OJI

The Lagos State Police Command is investigating the death of a young man in a hotel along Ire-Akari road, Isolo, Lagos.

The young man, Uche Egwuenu and the son of the hotel owner was also the operations manager of the hotel.

He was said to have locked up himself in one of the rooms in the early hours of Friday and refused to come out and in the early hours of yesterday, other staff who were not comfortable about his refusal to show up contacted the Divisional Police Officer(DPO) of Isolo Division who stormed the place with his team. The DPO ordered his men to force the door open and the said Uche Egwuenu was found dead on the bed.

Lagos State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) Patricia Amadin who confirmed the story said traces of a white liquid substance suspected to be narcotics oozed out of his mouth.

Amadin said a diary, a bottle of hot drink (Origin) mixed with the liquid substance were recovered from the scene.

She said Uche's corpse has been deposited at the mortuary while investigation continues.

Sen Adeola cautions police on