Policeman kills 2 inspectors, self in Yobe

FROM TIMOTHY
OLANREWaju, MAIDUGURI

A police constable in Yobe State killed two of his superiors-inspectors, and thereafter shot himself following an argument on his alleged refusal to carry out an order.

The constable, identified as Ibrahim Musa, was "booked" (queried) yesterday morning having allegedly defied the order of his superior at Sabon Garin Police Station in Nangere Local Government Area of Yobe State to carry out an assignment, a police source told Saturday Sun.

According to the source, Constable Musa had after argument with his superiors, Inspectors Mohammed Musa and Ishaku Elam pulled the trigger of his rifle and shot dead the two inspectors. "He thereafter shot himself too fearing the consequence of his action," the source added.

Another source said the constable was immediately rushed to the hospital where he died later even as bodies of the two slain inspectors were said to have been deposited at the mortuary of Potiskum General Hospital, some 30 kilometres away.

Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Yobe Command, Toyin Gbadegehin, confirmed the incident to journalists in Damaturu, adding that the remains of the deceased cops have been deposited at the morgue.
