

• Victim

“Actually, the day it happened, he was taken to the hospital and doctors have been attending to him. He’s improving bit by bit but we pray to God to give him full recovery. He talks a bit now,” she said.

treatment.

He said: “On the 19th of October, 2015, at about 8.00am, following intelligence report, police detectives attached to Soro Division discovered a six-day-old baby abandoned and covered with a wrapper inside a deep hole under the tree at Gungura Village in Ganjuwa LGA of the state.

“Discreet investigation led to the arrest of the suspect, one Zainab

Pregnant woman crushes hus

From Jeff Amechi Agbodo, Onitsha

TRAGEDY struck yesterday in Aguleri, Anambra East Local Government Area of Anambra State, when a pregnant woman crushed her husband’s testicles, which led to his sudden death.

But it was a double tragedy for the family, as his friend who took him to the mortuary was killed in a fatal accident, a day after his friend’s death along Otuocho-Adani Road.

A source close to the family where Governor Obiano of the state hails from, told City Today that the middle aged couple (name withheld) had a quarrel before they went to bed.

The woman, who was said to be carrying five months old pregnancy, had accused the husband of having an affair

Lagos.

The bandits were said to be robbing motorists at the Eko bridge, which links the Costain area.

City Today gathered that when the hoodlums, who were robbing from one vehicle to another got to a car and ordered the occupants to wind down their windows, the occupants refused to comply.

It was gathered that the lock at the Costain area when armed robbers, who cashed in on the traffic situation started robbing motorists. Our bus was robbed, after which the robbers went to a car in front of ours. I saw one of the armed robbers, arguing with the occupants of the vehicle. I later heard about five gunshots. One of the robbers was searching the car while others were firing into to work, so the commotion was too much."

Another witness, Joel Omojola, said: "When we heard the gunshots, my family and I thought that they were bank robbers that raided FESTAC Town two weeks ago, so we abandoned our vehicle and took to our heels.

It would be recalled that about a month ago, traffic robbers attacked the Man-of naira.

The Lagos State Police image maker, Mr. Joseph Offor, said a motorist called him to reports that there was a traffic robbery at the Costain area of the metropolis, "but nobody told me that someone died. I cannot say that someone died because I have not been officially briefed on the robbery."

band's testicles, killing him with another lady outside.

It was gathered that trouble started when they went to bed; the woman was said to have gone to the man's room, held his testicles and crushed it with an object which led to his sudden death.

But tragedies did not stop there, as the victim's friend (name withheld), a commercial motorcycle rider, who led others to deposit his corpse in a mortuary in Onitsha, was said to have gone to work the following day and was killed by a hit a run vehicle.

The Onitsha Area Commander, Mr. Philip Ezekiel, an Assistant Commissioner of Police (ACP), confirmed the unfortunate incident but did not give details. He said that the Otuocho Divisional Police Officer (DPO) was investigating the matter.