- Police deny arresting 125 Biafra agitators

From Paul Osuyi, Asaba

UNKNOWN gunmen have killed Delta State Labour Party House of Assembly candidate for Warri South Constituency I in the April general election, Mr. Akpobome Bright Obodo, at Orhunwhorhun, Udu Local Government Area of the state.

This is coming with speculations that judgment in the House of Assembly Elections Tribunal in Delta State would be delivered today.

Daily Sun investigation revealed that Obodo had challenged the victory of Dennis Omovie, an acclaimed winner of the election at House of Assembly Tribunal sitting in Asaba.

It was also gathered that the gunmen trailed the victim with a Jeta car and escaped with his Toyota Camry abandoning their vehicle at the scene.

His Campaign Director, Mr. Ben Obire did not respond to calls put across to his mobile phone number.

The Police Public Relations Officer in Delta State, DSP, Celestina Kalu could not be reached as at the time of filing this report, as she also did not respond to calls or text messages.

Meanwhile, Delta State Police Command yesterday denied arresting last Friday any member of the Indigenous People of Biafra (IPOB) over the continued detention of the Director of Radio Biafra, Mr. Nnamdi Kanu.

Fulani herdsmen are mercenaries, armed robbers –CAN

Hordes of enthusiastic agitators for the Sovereign State of Biafra had last Friday staged a protest that paralysed vehicular activities on the ever-busy Benin-Asaba- Onitsha highway, making a twin demand for the unconditional release of Mr. Kanu as well as absolute freedom from the Nigeria government.

Reacting to the publication, acting Public Relations Officer of the command, DSP Charles Muka told Daily Sun that about six identified leaders of the protesters were invited by the command for questioning.

He said the IPOB leaders were warned and released immediately after they (leader) had undertaken to eschew violence.
